

CV – Winsome Spiller

Background

Born May 1955, Melbourne, Australia.

Lives and works in Melbourne, Australia.

Winsome graduated with Honours in BA (Fine Arts) at RMIT University. Concurrently with her art practice she edits publications and a website for an urban economics consultancy. She has also worked as a town planner.

Education

Bachelor of Arts (Fine Art) Honours, 2010.

Bachelor of Arts (Fine Art) with Distinction, RMIT, 2009

Diploma of Arts (Visual Arts), RMIT, 2002

Bachelor of Town and Regional Planning, University of Melbourne, 1973-77

Solo Exhibitions

October 2008 Lost Topography, Anita Traverso Gallery, Melbourne

July 2007 Unseenerly, Anita Traverso Gallery, Melbourne

April 2004 Things you can't see, red gallery, Melbourne

Group Exhibitions

February 2011 3-Day.01, Dear Patti Smith artist run initiative

November 2010 Siemens Fine Art Awards exhibition, RMIT Gallery

November 2011 Honours Painting Graduate Exhibition, RMIT School of Art

December 2009 Anita Traverso Gallery group show

November 2009 Graduate Exhibition, RMIT School of Art

February 2007 The Only Constant, Anita Traverso Gallery (formerly Artefact Gallery), Melbourne

September 2006 It's a Spring Thing, Artefact Gallery, Melbourne

June 2006 End of Financial year show, Artefact Gallery, Melbourne

November 2005 Red stocking show, red gallery, Melbourne

November 2002 RMIT Diploma of Visual Arts Graduate Exhibition

Collections

Collection of Artbank

Works in private collections